A modern interior space featuring a staircase with dark wood treads and black metal balusters. The wall behind the stairs is covered in a light-colored stone mosaic. In the foreground, a white leather sofa is partially visible on the left, next to a round wooden coffee table with a dark wood base. A small black side table holds a cup and saucer. The floor is covered in large, rectangular tiles with a wood-grain pattern. A lush green plant arrangement is positioned behind the coffee table.
